Summary

Collaborated with clients on thousands of well-received commercial and editorial illustrations, live and studio caricatures or portraits, site-specific murals, and graphic/web design projects.

Taught hundreds of art students, in groups and as individuals, of varying ages and skills. My goal in education is to provide the pace and experiences that are desired of the students in an environment that provides humor, comfort, and high-self esteem.

Created and manage a thriving art/entertainment company that combines caricature/portrait art with highly creative entertainment at festivals, corporate events, and parties.

Mission: To continue to provide: excellent commercial illustrations and marketing for local and national clients; enjoyable art entertainment experiences; meaningful group and individual art instruction with great results for my students; and to gain more experience in film and animation arts. Always looking for a chance to work for a company full time in a any related customer service, art and design fashion.

4 people have recommended Lars-Erik

"This recommendation is well overdue. Lars turned a 2yr olds birthday party into an all out celebration. Not only is his creative talent beyond impressive, his personality sets him far above the rest in his "Art-tainment" field. He had all of the kids at the party laughing and having fun and the adults ended up wanting their caricatures done even more than the kids did. Thanks again for making my nephews birthday better than I could have ever asked for!"

"Lars is so much fun at an event. His caricatures are amazing. Guests get a real kick out of watching him in action. His work is top notch, David"

— David Wright, OWNER, David Wright Photography & Productions, worked with Lars-Erik at LarsER Arts "All Around Art-Tainment"

"Lars has provided his talent for the Seminole Pow Wow Festival. We were so pleased with his work, that we invited him again this year. The caricatures he provided for the festival goers were wonderful. I am sure he will be a fixture at the festival for years to come!"

— Dorie Michalik, Owner, New Attitudez, Inc., was with another company when working with Lars-Erik at LarsER Arts "All Around Art-Tainment"

"Lars Erik provided the caricature artwork for my business. Not only is he one of the nicest people I have met, he was very professional and did a terrific job for me. I will definitely use Lars again and recommend him to anyone needing someone with his talents. His artwork has helped me stand out and be remembered in my field. Thanks Lars!"
